TIGERS EXPECT TOUGH BATTLE WITH BULLDOGS

By Bobby Inman

The Elba Tigers, after a squeaky 13-6 victory over the Geneva Panthers last Thursday night, face the unbeaten and untied Andalusia Bulldogs in Elba Stadium tomorrow night in their last home game of the season.

The Bulldogs have succeeded in downing every team they have met so far this year with impressive victories. Opponents have not been able to hold them to less than three touchdowns in any game. The Tigers look for a rough game, with plenty of action on hand.

Last Thursday night saw the home team spring back from a 4-0 halftime deficit in Geneva to down the Panthers by a 13-7 score. The host team, although the underdogs, put a scare into the Tigers, who were unable to muster any sort of a scoring threat until the third quarter.

Starts Fast

Geneva started the game fast, knocking two big thrusts deep into Tiger territory, before they scored midway in the second frame. One punch was halved by the Elba line on the 4-yard line, and another by Mike Corbitt's interception of a Geneva aerial. On the third drive the Panthers crossed the Elba goal line on a 1-foot plunge.

On a fourth down, Geneva failed to convert the extra point. The second half was an entirely different story as halfbacks Jack Flowers and Tom Dyess and fullback Earl McCollough unleashed a powerful running attack and the Tiger line stiffened repeatedly to form a solid defense.

Elba's tying TD was made in the third quarter on a 10-yard end sweep by Tom Dyess. The extra point was no good, and Elba was now in sight of victory.

13 Yard Score

The highlight of the game came in the fourth quarter when speedy fullback Earl McCollough broke through the Geneva line on an off-tackle play, sprinted out of reach of several tacklers, and raced 75 yards for Elba's winning touchdown. Tom Dyess made the extra point. From that point on, it was a defensive battle with the game ending at midfield.

Dyess, Wise, McCollough and Flowers continued to give Elba a good-running backfield, and are developing into a smooth combination. Elba's line, bolstered this week by the addition of 190 pound guard Robert Russell to the starting lineup last week, improves week-by-week.

The Lineup

Tomatoes are a good source of vitamin C, one cupful, furnishing two-thirds of the daily requirement. Although vitamin C is often destroyed in cooking or storage, it stands up well in pickled or canned tomatoes.

A squirrel hunting gunshot accident took the life of 16-year old Tommy J. Bradshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bradshaw, who live on a farm just off the Elba-Enterprise highway near Elba, Monday, Nov. 3.

Young Bradshaw was hunting with his first cousin, Ted Bradshaw, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bradshaw, when the accident happened. They had taken a tractor to ride the difficult dirt road north of the Elba-Enterprise highway and had gone about two miles to the Pea River.

Two brothers, Winslow and Hollis Matthews, of Elba, were hunting about a mile away when they said they heard Ted calling for help. They ran back to their car just in time to see Ted coming down the dirt road driving the tractor with one arm and holding his cousin with the other. This was about 4 p.m.

They took the two boys into their car and rushed them to Gibson hospital, Enterprise, where the wounded boy died six hours later. The shotgun discharge had entered his left side just below the heart severing vital arteries and injuring his left lung.

Ted said they had been hunting sometime when Tommy called to him and suggested "Let's go home." He laid the shotgun on the tractor to wait for Ted when it fell off and discharged.

He is survived by his parents, and three brothers: Rex, Joe, and Larry, all at home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Elba Assembly of God Church with the Rev. W. D. Thomas officiating. Burial was in New Brockton cemetery with Hayes Funeral Home in charge.

Keith Boswell Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. James Boswell entertained 12 young lads and lassies Saturday afternoon, Oct. 25, marking the fourth birthday of young son Keith.

After enjoying a gay period of games, ice cream and cake out from a candy cane enclosed fort of horses, cowboys and Indians was served to Mark Vaughan, Ricky Rainey, Bill Scarborough, Mike and Harriette Ballard, Nina Mescham, Cindy Stokes, Deborah Landingham, Jimmy Nell, Judy and Tommy Skinner.

CEMETERY WORKING

The cemetery working at Mt. Gilead Baptist was postponed from last Saturday to Saturday, Nov. 8, due to rain.

PUBLIC INVITED

The public has been invited to visit Elba City Schools Thursday, Nov. 13, as part of observance of National Education Week Nov. 10-14.

Any pan with a tight-fitting lid may be used for "waterless" cooking. "Waterless" cooking simply means using an amount of water that will be evaporated by the time the vegetable is done.

CONGRATULATIONS ALL

Elba scored again in its efforts to provide a day of entertainment with the annual Fall Festival.

The credit belongs to the community. It would be impossible to make a complete list of all who contributed to it.

ELBA CHAPTER ENTERTAINS COUNTY F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America met with the Elba Chapter for the first county meeting of the year.

The meeting was called to order by the county president, Charlotte Vaughn of Elba. The roll was called by Patricia Lambert, Secretary of New Brockton.

The program consisted of music and a fashion show presented by the Elba Chapter. The showing included suitable costumes to carry the high school girl through the day and evening activities.

Following the program, refreshments were served by the Elba Chapter. Those chapters which enjoyed the social hour with Elba were Enterprise, New Brockton and Kinston.

The next county meeting will be held in Kinston, December 4.

Stores Will Close For Armistice Day

Armistice Day will be observed in Elba Tuesday with the closing of stores by agreement of the Retail Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. This is one of four store holiday closings for the year.

Stores closed a day and a half for Fourth of July, and in addition to Armistice Day, other closings will be: Closed Thursday, Nov. 27, for Thanksgiving; Christmas closed Thursday and Friday to reopen Saturday; New Year's close Thursday only.

LIGHT VOTE

Voting in the state-wide election Tuesday was desultory in Coffee County with no opposition to any state or local candidates nominated in the Spring Democratic Primary. Official canvass will be Thursday and results will be announced in the next issue of The Elba Clipper.

R. E. MASON AND L. S. RAINER, JR. JOIN DORSEY'S

Two additions to the sales staff of Dorsey Trailers, Inc., were announced during the past week.

They were: Robert E. Mason recently with the Better Business Bureau, of Houston, Tex., and Lamar Rainer, Jr., for the past few years with National Security Insurance Co., of Elba. Mr. Mason will be sales promotion manager to succeed Bill Ross, who resigned Oct. 1 to go to Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. Rainer will be a member of the sales staff. He is a member of Elba City Council and is president of the Elba Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Mason is married and has three children: Eddie, 11, a student in Elba Grammar School; Robert 3, and Randy, 15 mos. He has already purchased a home on Kinston highway, in Elba.

ASSEMBLY CLASS CHOIR HELD AT JACK SUNDAY

The Assembly of God Class Choir Singing Convention was held Sunday, Oct. 26, at the Assembly of God Church, at Jack, with members from Coffee, Geneva, and Pike counties present.

The program was sponsored by the Inter-Church Council composed of representatives from the various civic clubs and numerous other persons volunteered their cooperation. Credit for the success, then goes to Elba.

Stores Will Close For Armistice Day

The class opened with J. C. Walden and Jake Spivey each singing two songs after which officers for the day were elected as follows: Mrs. Mervie Baker, chairman; Lloyd Chancellor, vice chairman; Mrs. W. T. Turner, secretary, and the following as committeemen: W. C. Jackson, John Pharm and W. T. Turner.

Leaders chosen were: H. A. Davis, H. B. Stephens, C. F. Coggage, W. R. Hamilton, W. B. Turner. After a five minute recess the class was called to order with Mrs. Baker, J. C. Walden, T. R. Sanders, C. W. Beasley and Mrs. H. A. Davis as leaders. Rev. Elba, pastor of the church, made the welcome address.

After lunch, the following acted as leaders: Mrs. Baker, Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Mrs. Albie Coggage, Mrs. W. T. Turner, Mrs. Jessie Taylor, W. C. Jackson, Jake Spivey, John W. Lee, J. H. Stewart, Martin Wyatt, Son Lowery, R. T. Wilson, Fitzhugh Lee, Ray McLaney, Dr. J. R. Ashwood, Luther Hester, Mrs. Fannie Harvey, Mrs. Martin Barron, J. P. Price, Mrs. Son Lowery, Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee, Mrs. N. W. Senn and John Pharm.

The next meeting will be held at the Union Hill Church on March 15, 1959.

SCHOOL GROUP IS UNANIMOUS IN RISING VOTE

The Elba Public School P.T.A. unanimously went on record in a standing vote in the Elba High School auditorium Tuesday night in favor of adoption of the special 5-mill school tax increase in the election Nov. 23. Despite a cold rain, the city was well represented by the 150 people who attended the meeting and heard speakers explain the necessity for more school revenue.

Attorney Jackson W. Stokes acted as chairman of the meeting and called for reports from the various committees and remarks from interested persons.

"You have probably heard much about the excellent schools in Decatur, Ala.," said Circuit Judge Eris F. Paul, "but I wonder if you know that a taxpayer in Decatur pays three times the rate for schools as does a taxpayer in Elba."

The often-repeated comment about the schools of Elba being attended by students from outside city limits whose parents do not pay city taxes was answered by Mr. Stokes as follows:

"The money paid by the people of Elba and Coffee county for their schools would actually keep the schools open about 19 days out of each year. Then where does the rest of it come from? Why, it comes from the state with payment based on average daily attendance. Then it is obvious that the more students we have the more money we get from the state, regardless of where the students come from."

Horton Fick, chairman of the City School Board, said: "I have never before been so anxious to pay more taxes."

LOCAL BUSINESS

By C. S. TALBERT
Chairman, Dept. of Journalism, University of Mississippi

When national advertisers introduce a new product they almost always turn to newspaper advertising.

There is a good reason for this practice. As one advertising man said: "Newspapers tend to advertising an environment of excitement, with immediacy and urgency on every page." He added that the advertiser may hope that some of the feeling of newness will rub off on his advertising and give his message a similar sense of urgency.

However, the value of keeping advertising newsworthy is not limited to the introduction of new products. The extensive research of Dr. George Gallup, noted public opinion expert, indicates that news elements contribute more than anything else to the effectiveness of advertising.

Clyde Bedell, an outstanding retail advertising consultant, recommends that advertisers attempt to include a news appeal in every advertising headline. Bedell and Gallup base their conclusions on years of careful testing of advertising readership and sales results.

As these experts have repeatedly pointed out, news and good advertising can not be separated. The interest of the public in a change in prices of goods has the same basis as news about a new tax rate. Illustrations of new styles shown in the advertising of a dress shop may interest local women more than a news story about the latest capers of Paris designers.

In fact, repeated readership research has very firmly established the fact that retail advertising is a major news attraction in any community.

Along with other community news, the public traditionally expects the local newspaper to provide the latest news on the local market.

4-H NEWS Round-up

BY TOM CASADAY • ASSISTANT COUNTY AGENT

I've visited several of the boys and girls this week who are feeding calves for the 4-H Fat Stock Shows. And judging from the way these calves look, the clubbers are doing a good job.

They're proud of their projects, and this reminds me that these 4-H club members would like to have neighbors and others come by to see their calves occasionally. A little encouragement means a lot to all of us and especially to young boys and girls. The following club members have calves. Go by to see them sometime.

This Level Community: Hugh-Jr. Margaret, Diane Hubert, Jimmy and Donnan Bryan, Mack Gailmore, Latane and Joe Clann, Billy and Frankie Carpenter and Larry Carter. In the Kinston community: Coy Patterson and Howard Smith, Jr. have calves. In the Good-hope community: Faye Allen, Linda Kay Howell and Jimmy Ray Moore and Vann McCall are feeding calves. In the Fillingim of New Hope and Louie Jones of the Mt. Pleasant club are feeding calves. Between now and November 15, other boys and girls are planning to start this project.

Meaty Hogs
Hog marketing specialist Ray Cavelier at Auburn said the following about checking hogs: Probing for backfat thickness is one of the surest methods of selecting live animals for meatiness. Experiment stations have done research on this method of selecting and found that an average of three probes, first probes, first ribs, last rib and last lumbar vertebra, gives us the best estimate of backfat thickness.

However, probing does not tell us the whole story as to the meatiness of our live animals. The final results come in the carcass form when you actually get down to the meat end of the business. Large meaty loins, well muscular hams, and the shoulders with minimum outside and inner seam fat are

THREE LITTLE PIGS
KEEP THE WOLF AWAY FROM YOUR DOOR WITH U.S. SAVINGS BONDS... 3 1/2% INTEREST!

Best of all, Savings Bonds now pay you higher interest — faster! Every Series E Bond purchased since February 1, 1957, pays you a safe and sure 3 1/2% interest when held to maturity. It pays higher interest, too, in the earlier years, and matures in only 8 years and 11 months.

Remember, the way to keep the big bad wolf from your door is to build your house of savings with bricks — the safe and sure kind — the U. S. Savings Bond kind. Start buying them regularly today — either on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or where you bank.

(with apologies to the 3 little pigs)

You can build your house with straw. (But it may not keep you dry if a rainy day comes along.)

You can build your house with sticks. (But the winds of adversity might blow it down.)

The best way to build your house is with a solid foundation of bricks. (And U. S. Savings Bonds are some of the best savings bricks you can buy.)

Bonds are solid as a rock — guaranteed by your Government. They're loss-proof, fire-proof, theft-proof — the Treasury will replace them without charge in case of mishap. And the principal invested in Bonds is safe — not subject to market fluctuations.

COFFEE NEWS & CHAT

November 9-16, 1958 has been designated by the American Home Economics Association as National Home Economics Week. Governor Polson, in his proclamation, has proclaimed the observance of these dates as Home Economics Week in Alabama.

The demand today for trained Home Economists so far exceeds the supply we are asking that you encourage your daughters to seriously consider Home Economics as a profession for homemaking and a career with job insurance. Young recruits are needed. Home Economics is taught in ten colleges in Alabama: Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Alabama College, University of Alabama, Florence State College, Howard, Huntington, Judson, Jacksonville State College, Livingston State Teachers College and Snead Junior College.

Mr. Troy Keble, Landscape Specialist from Auburn, will speak to the Enterprise Garden club November 11 at 3:15 p.m.

The County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs voted to sell candy for a project, and this candy will be delivered to your community and club sometime during the week of November 24.

Schedule of Club Meetings—Monday, November 10, White-water, with Mrs. A. D. Smith at 1:30.

Monday, November 10, Bluff Springs, with Mrs. Albert Dyess at 1:30.

November 11, Enterprise with Mrs. Fred Griffin at 2:00.

November 12 at Zion Chapel with Mrs. Jack Amos at 1:30.

November 12, at Evergreen, with Mrs. Lula Hussey at 1:30.

Harvest of Soups... Made With Milk!

It's Canned Foods Month, and all time to think of a new treasury of recipes using wonderful canned foods, especially canned condensed soups.

Each kind is colorful and nutritious due to the fine ingredients, harvested at the peak of perfection, and hastened to the soup kitchen with as little loss in time as possible. Each kind is carefully prepared then cooked with care so that the labors of slicing, cutting and long hours of simmering for you, the homemaker, are a thing of the past.

For lunch, dinner, snacktime, yes, even breakfast, consider the help from a selection of canned soups. To step up the nutritive value of a can of soup, make it with milk... whole or skim (bottled or aseptically sealed). Add dry powder to the soup, or reconstitute according to package directions, and add reconstituted milk to the soup.

These recipes made with five great soups... will become a treasury... for the economy-wise and nutrition-wise mother. Each has a sophisticated goodness for all menu planning occasions!

Harvest Soup
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed vegetable soup
1 soup can milk
2 soup can water
In saucepan, stir mushroom soup until smooth. Blend in chicken vegetable soup, milk, and water. Heat but do not boil. Stir now and then. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Kids Favorite Soup
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed vegetable soup
1 soup can milk
1 soup can water
In saucepan, combine all ingredients. Heat but do not boil. Stir now and then. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Snack Bowl Special
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed vegetable soup
1 soup can milk
1 soup can water
In saucepan, stir mushroom soup until smooth. Blend in turkey noodle soup, milk, and water. Heat, stirring now and then. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Blood: The River of Life

No other part of our body works so hard or does so many vital jobs as does our blood. The average person has 12 to 13 pints of blood. It is moved constantly through a network of about 60,000 miles of arteries, veins and capillaries in its job of feeding tissues, regulating temperature, removing waste and fighting disease. There is nothing else in the world quite like blood, and there is no substitute for it.

Just what is blood? It is composed of a number of things, the largest portion by volume being plasma. This is the fluid part of the blood and is about 92 per cent water.

Probably the hardest little worker in the blood is the red cell, which is made primarily in the bone marrow. Red cells are saucer-shaped and are spongy. They hold hemoglobin, a chemical which picks up oxygen from the lungs and carries it through the body.

It is necessary to keep the production of hemoglobin at a normal rate. Best sources of iron are meat (especially liver), eggs, green leafy vegetables, whole grain bread and cereals.

White cells, larger than red cells and irregularly shaped, are the "doctors" of the body. In the normal body, there is only one white cell for every 600 red cells. When the body is attacked by an invading disease, the white cells rapidly converge on the organism and throw a defense. That is why the white cell "count" increases when you have an infection in your body.

Another factor in the blood are platelets, which assist blood in coagulation by helping form blood clots.

Of all the diseases of the blood, leukemia is the most serious. This is almost invariably fatal. This condition is brought on when, for some unknown reason, the body produces white cells at an abnormal rate.

Another serious and more widely-spread disorder of the blood is anemia, of which there are several types.

ALL WHO SHARE
CORN CROP MAY
VOTE ON QUOTA
Any resident of Coffee County who produced corn in 1958 or was entitled to share in the 1958 corn crop will be eligible to vote in the corn referendum Nov. 25. C. D. Gunter of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office announced.

An owner - operator, cash tenant, standing rent or fixed rent tenant, a share tenant or sharecropper or the landlord of a share tenant will be eligible to vote. The landlord of a standing rent, cash rent, or fixed rent tenant will not be eligible.

In addition, Mr. Gunter said, there are three other groups of eligible voters: 1. Any operator or landlord of a farm for which a 1958 corn allotment was established even though corn was not planted; 2. Any person who planted corn in 1958 but did not harvest it; and 3. Anyone who placed corn allotment land in the Soil Bank in 1958.

The purpose of the November referendum will be to determine whether the present corn program should be changed for 1959 and later years to a new program in which there would be no acreage allotments on corn and price supports would be determined on a different basis.

The amount of poultry droppings in a poultry house can be estimated by dividing the total pounds of feed fed by two.

Twenty years from now the most severe shortage may be men and women trained to produce and handle food and fiber.

Tigers To Growl At Walls of Troy

By Bobby Inman

After losing a disheartening 20-0 game to Andalusia's unbeaten Bulldogs last Friday in Troy, the Elba High Tigers will journey to Troy tomorrow night to seek their fifth win of the season against four losses.

The Tigers will be seeking revenge for a 46-0 shellacking by Troy last season. The game is considered a tossup.

Last season's triumph over the Bulldogs was a determined Bull forward wall, setting the pattern for the Tigers offense.

During the entire game, the Tigers outshined and outpassed their opponents.

But lacked the scoring punch throughout the contest. Five times the Tigers were inside the Andalusia 10-yard line. The contest ended on the two after Tom Drees had caught a 58-yard pass, but was knocked out of bounds.

Leads Bulldogs Trace Hatway of Andalusia. The program began with a barbecue at 7 p.m. followed by the band show with first-place winners as follows, with name of dog and owner:

Puppies up to six months—Cindy by J. L. White of Geneva.

Male puppies six to 12 months—Georgia Dan by Mark Miller of Fort Gaines, Ga.

Female puppies six to 12 months—Georgia Peach by Mark Miller.

Best puppy in show—Georgia Peach by Miller.

Derby male, one to two years—Jenny by J. D. Stephens.

Push-up by Dewey Farmer of Montgomery.

Derby females, one to two years—Jenny by J. D. Stephens.

All-age males, two years up—Horse by J. D. Stephens.

All Age Females, two years up—Florida Daisy by John D. Stephens.

Stagettes, Natural, Carriage Georgia—Georgia Peach by Miller.

Best Pair—Daisy and Jenny by J. D. Stephens.

Best Pack of Four—Hounds—Tuff, Ruff, Drunkard Master and Drunkard Queen by D. M. Drinkard.

Best Dog in Show—Florida Jenny by J. D. Stephens.

Best Opposite Sex—Push-up by Dewey Farmer.

Winners in the All-Age Group Field Trials were as follows in the order named: 1. Drunkard Queen by D. M. Drinkard; 2. Sam Davis by J. J. White; 3. Drunkard Master by D. M. Drinkard; 4. Drunkard Fred by D. M. Drinkard; 5. James E. Bryant of Elba; 6. Drunkard Masterman by D. M. Drinkard; 7. Cavanaugh by Comer Chamber of Elba; 8. Lue by James E. Bryant.
